

I do not want to lose k-love as my favorite radio station. I use to listen to an oldies station but now listening to k-love is way more uplifting for me. Children should not have to listen to the usual garbage on the radio but have something they can actually listen to that can help their lives instead of dragging them down. Don't make us lose this station in our community! We need k-love.